

Health Care Team Challenge to go international in 2010

Following the success of the 2007 and 2008 University of Queensland Health Care Team Challenge (UQ HCTC), interest in the program has skyrocketed.

In response to this, the HCTC project team is looking to expand its horizons and is taking event global. The inaugural National competition (OzHCTC) is set to be launched on Friday 7 August, 2009 at The University of Queensland with the International HCTC set to be launched in 2010.

Universities from around Australia are flying in to let their teams represent at what is rapidly becoming the largest Interprofessional Education (IPE) initiative in Australia.

All HCTC competitions are open to the public so come along and watch the future professionals of Australian health in action. Details listed below.

- UQ HCTC: Friday 22 May 2009. UQ Centre, St Lucia Campus, University of Queensland, Australia
- OzHCTC: Friday 7 August, 2009. UQ Centre, St Lucia Campus, University of Queensland, Australia
